WILLIAM WHITMAN, residing in New Canaan, Connecticut, having been sworn by the remote notary public to testify to the truth, testified as follows: DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MS. DAWSON:  Q Good morning, Mr. Whitman. My name is	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	William Whitman - Confidential orally, which you're already doing. So that means no "um-hum"s or "hum-hum" just "yes" or "no." Is that agreeable?  A Yes.  Q Let me know if you need me to repeat a question because you did not hear it clearly. Also, let me know if you need me to rephrase a question because you don't understand.  Is that agreeable?  A Yes.  Q And if you respond, Mr. Whitman, I'm going to assume that you understood my question.  Is that agreeable?  A Yes.  Q We'll take breaks throughout the day. If you need to take a break, let me know. This is not a marathon, and obviously people need to go to the restroom and things like that. So I'll try to take breaks about every hour.  The only rule associated with that is, if I've asked a question, you need to answer that

A Correct.  Q Let's just go through this first page. You see, up at the top, policy date information. It says your policy is dated January 16, 2001.  Do you see that?  A Yes.  Q All right. And it says:  "This notice provides information from January 16, 2001, to January 16, 2002."  Do you see that?  A I see that.  Q So is it fair to say that this document is about to provide information about your policy activity from the period January 16, 2001, to January 16, 2002?  MR. LYTLE: Object to the form.  Q Is that accurate?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	William Whitman - Confidential  Q The next line, you see "cost of insurance for universal life," and there's a number there. What's that number?  A "Cost of insurance, universal life insurance cost, $539.22."  Q So on the very first page of the annual notice, it identifies the cost of insurance deducted for the period January 16, 2001, to January 16, 2002, correct?  A Well, I don't know what "insurance cost" means in this context. But that's what it says here. It says, "cost of insurance," "insurance cost, $539.22."  Q Then do you see "account value"?  A Yes.  Q All right. Then underneath "account value," it has various items listed, "beginning balance," "payments," "interest credited," "expense charges," "cost of insurance," "balances as of January 8, 2002," "interest to be earned." A I don't know specifically or remember specifically emailing myself this, this link.  Q Well, in 2011, the only life insurance you had was with State Farm, correct?  A I believe so.  Q So the only life insurance policy that you would have to be evaluated is the State Farm policy, correct?  MR. LYTLE: Object to the form of the question. It assumes that the witness was having his State Farm life insurance policy evaluated. It misstates his prior testimony about consideration of term life insurance. And it's argumentative.

Q Okay. Can you read for me what it says about how this plan works?  A "This plan works. You start with a plan premium and death benefit. You may change either in the future subject to policy provisions. When you pay premiums, we deduct a 5 percent expense charge. The rest is added to the account value. From this account value, we deduct" each "we deduct each month: A, the current cost of insurance, including the charges for any riders; and B, a monthly expense charge of $5. Account value earns interest at the current interest rate, but" low "but a lower rate may be credited to an account value which you have borrowed. Surrender charges apply. The company sets the current cost of insurance rates, which will never be more than the maximum rates in the policy, and declares the current interest rate, which will never be less than the guaranteed 4 percent rate. The current rates may be changed at any time. This policy is
